

Bullying Prevention Reporting Form (BPRF)

Sarasota Christian School

Thank you for reporting honestly and accurately bully-like behavior you observed first hand. SCS is a bullying prevention campus and is committed to honoring each other as God's children. Falsifying of information will not be tolerated and incur consequences.

Reporting options: All suspected bully-like behavior can be reported anonymously and reporting names are optional. Ways of reporting bully-like behavior observed on campus or during SCS functions include:

1. Tell a teacher who you trust and/or who may know students involved in the incident.
2. Give a completed Bullying Prevention Reporting Form (BPRF) to an SCS adult employee (principal, teacher or staff member) who will pass on to the appropriate principal. BPRF's are visibly available in each classroom, on the SCS website and RenWeb for students and parents, and for employees through SCS Important Documents.
3. Email or text BPRF info (who, what, when, where, date and time) to: bp@sarasotachristian.org.
4. Send via US post office mail.

1. Name(s) of person(s) to whom the bully-like behavior is targeted
